We have an exciting opportunity for a Cook with chef/catering experience to join the Catering Team at Burford School Boarding Department, Lenthall House which is situated in Church Lane, Burford. As a cook employed in the Boarding Department you will assist with the day to day production of all meals for boarding students. You'll be an excellent team worker with previous experience of working in a food handling environment. You should have gained or be in the process of gaining catering training, and experience of large scale catering would be an advantage.

Visits are warmly welcomed so you can see for yourself what makes Burford School such a special place to work – please contact Sarah Evans, HR Manager.
