Today, the original Grammar School in the heart of Burford, is a Grade 1 listed building and forms part of the Burford School Boarding Department.

We have an exciting opportunity for a well-qualified and enthusiastic Deputy Housemistress to join our vibrant Boarding Department.

The Deputy Housemistress will be responsible for the general and personal development of all the girls in the Boarding House, in accordance with school policies. She will assist the Housemistress in providing students with a positive, 'home from home' experience of boarding education, recognising and meeting the needs of each individual through the establishment of strong and supportive personal relationships.

In return we can offer excellent CPD, a supportive senior leadership team, a modern approach with traditional values and a beautiful rural setting.

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed so you can see for yourself what makes Burford School such a special place to work – please contact Sarah Evans, HR Manager.
