

More Able Bulletin – Ideas to get you thinking...

Explore – The home of big questions

Each week I will pose a question and provide you with some extra research to help you think about your answer to that question.

It's just to getting you thinking bigger – consider more, open your mind to new ideas, opinions and concepts.

You don't need to do anything more than think about your answer, or you could investigate further...

Is the internet bad?

Riddles to make you think...

Which die completes the set?

What can you break, even if you never pick it up or touch it?

The more of this there is, the less you see. What is it?

Opportunities from Oxford University...

Oxford from the Inside is a podcast and social media platform created and managed by students at the University of Oxford studying a range of subjects in a range of year groups. Our podcast episodes include advice for any potential applicants to Oxbridge and to university in general; covering personal statements, university interviews and providing information from a broad variety of perspectives on life at University. Check out their offer here, or see some Personal Statement advice on their YouTube channel here.

Springboard is a new series of super-curricular videos and resources aimed at Year 11s and Sixth Formers. They have been organised by our colleagues at Oxford for East England, and are open to all. There are more videos being added all the time, on a huge variety of topics, from photographs to flowers, sleep to reading. Check them out here!

Take part in our Virtual Open Day on Friday 17 September to hear from our expert tutors and discover what (and how!) you would study as an undergraduate at Oxford.
